

SUMMER CAMP PRICING

Every Day is a New Adventure!

|                                                                                       |                                                      |                                                      |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------|
| AGES:                                                                                 | Rising Kindergarten - 4th grade                      |                                                      |
| CAMP HOURS:                                                                           | 8 AM - 4 PM, Extended Care: 7:30 AM - 6 PM           |                                                      |
| Registration<small>Price is Per Child</small>                                     | 5 Days Per Week                                      | 3 Days Per Week                                      |
| Current Members $75                                                                  | $185 Per Week                                       | $135 Per Week                                       |
| New Members $95                                                                      | Add a 2nd Child for $170 Per Week                   | Add a 2nd Child for $125 Per Week                   |
| Attending 2 Weeks or Less $40                                                        | Add Extended care for $200 Per Week                 | Add Extended care for $150 Per Week                 |
| Registration Fee Plus First Week's Tuition Reserves Your Child's Spot For the Summer! | Add Extended Care For a 2nd Child for $180 Per Week | Add Extended Care For a 2nd Child for $140 Per Week |

Early Bird Special!

Register Before May 30th

Save $10 Every Week!

That's Up To $80 in Savings Over Summer!

© Smoky Mountain Gymnastics 2026. All Rights Reserved

Design by Magnolia Media Marketing PLLC